

A horizontal banner for handwriting practice. It features a blue sky with white clouds at the top, a green grassy field in the middle, and a tan ground area at the bottom. A solid blue line runs across the middle, with a dashed green line above it and a dashed brown line below it. The lowercase cursive letters 'a' through 'z' are written in black ink, following the lines. The letters are arranged in a single row, starting with 'a' on the left and ending with 'z' on the right. The letters are written in a consistent, flowing cursive style.
