

Reflection Areas

We are developing the reflection areas inside our school building. They are places the children can go to when they want to have some quiet reflection time.

